GRAMMAR PRACTICE: “HAVE GOT”

Written by: Kateřina Vlčková

Age: 5th grade (ages 10-11)

Time: 2 lessons

Objectives:

- To understand and correctly use the structure “have got” in affirmative, negative, and interrogative forms.
- To apply “have got” in speaking and writing activities.

Language focus:

- Structure:
  - Affirmative: I have got a book.
  - Negative: I haven’t got a book.
  - Question: Have you got a dog?
  - Contractions: I’ve got, you’ve got, he’s got…

Materials required:

- whiteboard and markers,
- laptop, iPads

- applications: www.canva.com, www.bamboozle.com,

Lesson 1: Introduction

1. Warm-up and Introduction
    - Greet children and write on the board: What things have you got in your bag today?
    - Students answer quickly: I've got a pencil. I've got a notebook.

2. Presentation
    - Explain the structure with examples.
        - Affirmative: I have got a cat.
        - Negative: I haven't got a cat.
        - Question: Have you got a cat?
        - Contractions and short answers: Yes, I have. /No, I haven't.

3. Creative Activity
    - Ask children to write three questions about their family, for example: Have you got a brother or sister? Have you got any pets? (Children don't have to use only "have got")
    - Children write these questions on the sheet of paper and hand it to the teacher.
    - Teacher prepares "speaking cards"

Lesson 2: Dialogue and Creative Writing.

1. Warm-up
    - Review: Children say three sentences using "have got / haven't got"
2. Speaking activity
    - Children ask and answer the questions which prepared the previous lesson. Children work in pairs, and each pair receives a set of 20 questions.

3. Game: “Find Someone Who…”
    - Children are given a checklist (has got a pet, has got two brothers …)
    - Children walk around asking: “Have you got…?” and write down names.

4. Quiz
    - In the Student’s Book there is an exercise 2 on page 15. Pupils do the exercise.
    - Then they write three questions similar to those in Exercise 2 (eg. How many brothers and sisters has Daniel Radcliffe got? a) one brother, b) brothers or sisters
    - Children hand in their quiz questions with answers to the teacher. Based on the questions, teacher creates the quiz:
